Help Rescue The Lost Kittens And Bring Them To Safety In 'Meow Maze' For The Apple iPhone® & Apple iPad®

Courtesy Of Daily App Dream - Featured & FREE For A Limited Time Only

In collaboration with popular games- and app-portal, Daily App Dream (www.dailyappdream.com), independent developer RoboNacho Systems are offering their highly amusing and entertaining game, 'Meow Maze', for FREE in a limited-time promotion, beginning January 7th 2012.

In 'Meow Maze', you play the role of a character with striking resemblance to 'The Crazy Cat Lady', and your task is to help rescue the lost kittens in different mazes, and bring them home safely to their kittie-momma! Kittens are very fragile and sensitive creatures, and it's critical that you perform this task as quickly as possible, and in reward, the faster you succeed, the more coins you can win and collect! Your initial playable character is Memaw Mable, and by collecting (or buying) and using coins, other characters such as Percy Pippycock, Viola Vickers, Mitch Marbles, and Moonbeam Daydream become available as upgrades.

By rescuing kittens you will eventually gather enough coins to upgrade not only your character, but also unlock other levels and gather items. As each maze is randomly generated at each play, there is unlimited and infinite entertainment value ahead! Featuring single-, as well as a multi-player mode (where you can go head-to-head against other players through Game Center Support), rescuing kittens has never been more fun, and best of all you don't need to change the dirty litter box!
