Vikings & Pirates Go Head-To-Head In Brand New 'Save Yer Booty' Thriller Of An Action Game

Take No Prisoners And Have No Mercy!

From Synqua Games comes a brand new action-packed thriller of a game where Vikings and Pirates go head-to-head in a visually stunning and addicting axe-wielding title!

The Vikings are trying to get their filthy hands on Captain Goodthrow's booty, and it is your task to prevent those nasty sons of Odin from succeeding! In this awesome game with incredibly intuitive controls, you use your finger to draw a path on the screen to release your trusty battle axe to bring' em' down! Protect your treasure, and reclaim what is yours by tapping barrels of beer to freeze the onslaught of enemies! Points are awarded for every kill and multiple kills trigger additional bonus points. Treasure can be collected by tapping on treasure chests when the Vikings are not looking, allowing you to snatch the loot inside by guiding it to your ship! But your battle axe is not your only weapon of choice in your quest to destroy the Vikings as cannons also become available, enabling you to take down entire ships! Some Vikings can only be killed by tracing your path through nasty green venom, guaranteed to create a stinker of a weapon! As the game becomes progressively harder, obstacles such as falling spikes need to be cleverly and cunningly avoided by ingenious path navigation!

'Save Yer Booty' features not only crisp and colorful cartoonish graphics and highly intuitive controls. The game has an incredible 48 awesome levels spread across 4 stages, and two unique modes of play – 'Save Yer Booty', and 'Do or Die'. A new gameplay mode, Booty Steal, is currently in development and will be made available soon. The game is FREE to play (1 stage, 12 levels) with in-app purchases for 3 additional levels and includes more than 6 different enemies, all with varied and brilliantly implemented behaviors.
