GoDVD Offers Immediate And Instant Access To Movie Information On Your Apple iPhone™ & Apple iPod touch®

"Do you remember that movie called ... you know ... the one with what's-her-name in the lead role? ... Surely you remember? It's the classic we just discussed the other day, which I am sure was released in the 90s ... I think"

Sounds familiar? It should. We have all tried it. Whether you are at a party with a bunch of friends, stuck on a bus, impatiently looking for the train, or sitting at the terminal waiting for the plane to depart, discussing movies is always fun and interesting.

iMania LLC, a company dedicated to developing useful and entertaining Apple iPhone™ software recently released the new GoDVD app. With this app at your fingertips you have instant access to search and browse information about DVD and Blu-Ray movies, provide links directly to friends, relatives and family, and if your mind is made up, purchase the movie directly from your phone! With GoDVD at your disposal you no longer come up short when it comes to remembering or retrieving all the facts about the latest blockbuster release or the black and white classic your grandparents encouraged you to watch.

GoDVD features a pleasant, simple, and intuitive user interface that is accessible to anyone and everyone as the app is free-of-charge! GoDVD is the first in a series of "Go" apps from iMamia LLC, established independent developer with previous releases on Apple iPhone™ including Coach Nagger, Doggee Talk and Boss Nagger.

GoDVD is available (FREE) from the App Store here:
